

Rachel Barlow

Rachel Barlow is former Vice President of Kellen Europe and a Board member of the European Society of Association Executives.

She is currently focusing on governance issues arising from interest representation whilst undertaking a PhD on accountability in business associations.

With her 15 years' experience in Public Affairs, Rachel carries out ad hoc projects, and lectures at Lille University in France and on the Compact Seminar of the Development Office of the College of Europe in Bruges, Belgium.

Contact: Rachelbarlow_advice@yahoo.com